TENDERING INFORMATION FOR GRAND CAYMAN

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2008

When arriving in Grand Cayman tomorrow, we will be utilizing small boats to transport you to the island/shore. This is called a Tender Service, using Tender Boats. This service is provided by a local company in Grand Cayman. In order to make sure every guest is transported safely, we suggest that you follow the Safety Guidelines below.

SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Do not crowd in gangway areas.
2. Have your hands free to use the railings.
3. Wear comfortable, safe shoes since areas might be slippery.
4. Wait for a signal from the Crew Member in charge to board or disembark.
5. Follow instructions of the Crew Members.
6. Use any hand rails and do not jump or run while boarding
7. Sit down while in the tender boat at all times. Do not stand up as the tender boat approaches the pier or the ship. Remain seated in your seat row until you can step directly to the boarding point without standing in line. Keep in mind that there may be sudden movements while the tender boat is along side the ship, due to the motion of the seas.
8. No smoking in the tender or in line.
9. Notify Crew Member if you have any problems or feel uncomfortable.

We wish you a safe and enjoyable day in Grand Cayman.

ALL GUESTS

You will need your 'Key to the World' and Photo ID (guests 18 years and older) ready as you debark the ship. Please follow the tendering process below that pertains to you. Tenders will run continuously throughout the day from the Disney Magic to the Royal Watlers Pier and back until Last Tender at 4:00pm

FOR GUESTS WITHOUT SHORE EXCURSIONS

Tendering will begin at approximately 7:45am via a Tender Ticket process in Buena Vista Theatre, Deck 5, Aft. We ask that you have breakfast, and collect all members of your party before proceeding to the Buena Vista Theatre, at which point, you will remain in the theatre until the next available tender boat is ready for boarding. Ticket distribution will run until approximately 11:00am or when Open Tenders are announced, allowing you to proceed directly to a gangway on Deck 1 without a ticket.

FOR GUESTS GOING ON SHORE EXCURSIONS

- If your Shore Excursion meets before 11:00am:
Please meet at your designated excursion meeting location onboard at the time listed on your Shore Excursion Ticket and in your Personal Navigator. Your Shore Excursion Ticket will be considered your Tender Ticket.
- If your Shore Excursion meets at 11:00am or later and you are not planning to go ashore prior to your excursion meeting time:
Please meet on the Royal Watlers Pier. You should allow at least 45 minutes for tender travel time before your excursion meeting time on the pier. An announcement will be made when tender tickets are no longer required, approximately 11:00am. Until then, please meet in the Buena Vista Theatre, Deck 5, Aft to collect a tender ticket.
- If your Shore Excursion meets at 11:00am or later and you'd like to spend the morning in Grand Cayman, then meet your excursion on the pier:
You may go ashore starting at approximately 7:45am. Please meet in Buena Vista Theatre, Deck 5, Aft, to pick up a Tender Ticket. Remain in Buena Vista Theatre, Deck 5, Aft until your Tender Number (printed on ticket) is called, then proceed down to the designated gangway for Tendering. You should allow at least 45 minutes for tender travel time. Remember to meet on the pier at the specified time listed on your Shore Excursion ticket.

Towels will be provided for all water-based excursions. We kindly ask you to return all towels back to the ship after your tour. All excursions will return to the Grand Cayman Royal Watlers Pier, where tender service will run continuously back to the Disney Magic until 4:00pm.

THE LAST TENDER BACK TO THE DISNEY MAGIC WILL LEAVE ROYAL WATLERS PIER AT 4:00PM.
WE ENCOURAGE GUESTS TO RETURN EARLIER TO AVOID LONG TENDER TIMES.

Spotlight on Grand Cayman

HISTORY

It was 1503, Leonardo da Vinci was painting his Mona Lisa, Henry Tudor was building his chapel at Westminster and Christopher Columbus was on his final voyage to the Americas. He was heading from the coast of Panama to the island of Hispaniola when a freak wind pushed him off course near two tiny, low-lying mounds of earth. He named the islands, "Las Tortugas," after the multitude of sea turtles that he found there. On later maps the islands were labeled the Caimanau, the Carib Indian word for "crocodile." The name "Caimanas" refers inaccurately to the iguanas native to the islands, not to crocodiles.

While the islands were frequented by ships seeking freshwater and turtle meat, they remained unsettled due to pirate raids until the 17th century. The islands' pioneers, who settled on Cayman Brac and Little Cayman, are thought to have been deserters from Oliver Cromwell's army, which in 1665 captured Jamaica from the Spanish. The Caymans were magnets for buccaneers such as Sir Henry Morgan and "Blackbeard" Edward Teach. Myths about fortunes buried here by pirates endure, although little has been discovered. Caymanians are proud of their seafaring heritage. The Cayman Islands were territories of Jamaica until 1962, when Jamaica gained its independence and Caymanians chose to remain British subjects. The colony has a British governor, appointed by the Queen who presides over an elected Assembly and the mixed Executive Council. Prosperity has arrived in the past 20 years as tourism and banking have become thriving industries.

Spotlight on Cozumel

HISTORY

The history of Cozumel is linked to the Mayan civilization. Cozumel was a sacred Mayan shrine referred to as Ah-Cuzamil-Peten, or "Island of the Swallows."

In the 10th century, the Mayan civilization began to decline. The primary reason for the decline was the influence of the more aggressive Toltecs. Many Mayans were killed in battle or sacrificed, while some were assimilated into the conquering tribes. By the 12th century, the Toltec cult of the god Quetzalcoatl, meaning "plumed serpent," dominated the Mayan culture. Fighting ended in 1540, when the Spanish invaded the Yucatan Peninsula. The last Mayan city, near Lake Peten in Guatemala, fell to the Spanish in 1697.

The Spanish first arrived on Cozumel in 1518, early in their conquest of the Americas. With Cortes' arrival, many of the Mayan temples were destroyed. When he left the island, not only did the native civilization lie in ruins, but an outbreak of smallpox swept the island. From the population of 40,000 that Cortes reported in 1519, the number was a mere 300 by 1570. And 30 years later, the island was completely abandoned.

Although pirates used Cozumel as a base in the 17th century, the island wasn't resettled until 1848, when people sought refuge from the "War of the Castes" on the Mexican mainland. This struggle, an often violent attempt by natives of Mayan ancestry to regain their lands, lasted until a surrender to government troops in 1901. Important land reforms and freedom for the Indians resulted from the Revolution of 1910-1917. By 1970, the population had reached 10,000, and today some 67,000 people inhabit this island paradise.

A walk down the avenue is made all the more pleasant by sampling the exotic drinks and tastes in the local shops along the way.
